Getting an Interview

Fatima applied for three jobs by completing applications online. She is waiting and hoping to hear back from one or more of the companies. After eight days, her phone rings. One of the companies has invited her to do an interview! The scheduler from the company chooses the day and time that works best for the company. It is up to Fatima to make sure she is there on time. She looks at her calendar and makes sure that she reschedules her other plans. Fatima is so excited for her interview. She hopes to get a job!

Researching the Company

Jack has an interview with a grocery store. Before the interview on Friday at 10:00am, he spends time doing research on the company by looking them up online. Jack knows that in an interview it is important to know as much as possible about the company before you get there. This will show the interviewer that Jack is really interested in working for their company. It also helps Jack be sure that the company is a place he wants to work. Knowing what the company is about will help Jack answer the interviewers questions. Jack is setting himself up for a successful interview.
