Work Ethic

Robert got a job at the library. His new boss told him that all he cares about is work ethic. Having good work ethic means doing your best when you are at work and having a good attitude. Robert can show that he has a good work ethic by working hard the entire time he is at work,, not wasting time, and doing the right thing even when no one is watching. Robert wants his new boss to like him because he really enjoys his job at the library. He knows that showing good work ethic will leave a good impression on his boss.
