Busser

Jacob got a job as a busser at Olive Garden. When he gets to work he will be in charge of getting the tables ready for customers. That means he will need to move all of the dirty dishes off the table and take them into the kitchen. Then, Jacob will use a clean rag to wipe off the tables and make sure there is nothing spilled on them. Once they are clean Jacob will bring clean silverware and napkins to the table and place them neatly in front of each chair. He knows that being a busser will be hard work but he is very excited because he knows that he will earn a paycheck and sometimes he will earn tips too!
